The complexities of the COVID-19 pandemic, including travel restrictions, have challenged USCAP to re-imagine an innovative approach to sustaining its educational mission while protecting the health and safety of its faculty, attendees, exhibitors, sponsors, staff and volunteers.

The 2021 Annual Meeting has been redesigned as a groundbreaking virtual and interactive fusion of educational offerings, the newest in translational research, live events, social and networking opportunities, and exhibitor experiences – all online and accessible from wherever you are.

Abstracts and Awards submissions open August 6.

Registration for the Annual Meeting opens in November.
